The board of directors of Orcoda and management believe that Orcoda commitment to this policy contributes to achieving Orcoda corporate objectives and embeds the importance and value of diversity within the culture of Orcoda.

We acknowledge that our employees and clients share a diverse range of backgrounds and religious beliefs and practices and we support tolerance of difference in the workplace.

We aim to provide opportunities that allow individuals to reach their full potential, irrespective of an individual's ethnic or cultural background or gender.

We aim to develop and promote a workforce based on inclusion where individuals are respected, supported and provided with appropriate opportunities.

We acknowledge the corporate benefits arising from a commitment to diversity.

1.2 Who this policy applies to

This policy applies to all directors of the Board, as well as all other officers, employees, contractors, consultants and associates of Orcoda. It is essential that you are familiar with this policy, which is available on Orcoda's website.

1.3 Implementation

The Board has the role of overseeing the implementation of this policy and assessing progress in achieving its objectives. See paragraph 3.2 below.

2. What Diversity Means To Us

2.1 What is diversity?

Diversity refers to characteristics that make individuals different from each other.

Diversity encompasses differences in backgrounds and experiences, and also differences in approach and viewpoints. It includes factors such as gender, age, ethnicity, cultural background, language, disability and other areas of potential difference.

2.2 Gender diversity

Orcoda has a commitment to gender diversity and the fundamental principle that gender is not a barrier to participation in our workforce, management, senior executive and on our Board. Our leaders are committed to providing opportunities that allow all staff to reach their full potential, regardless of gender.

2.3 Board and senior executive diversity

At Orcoda, diversity of gender and background are two important criteria we take into account in developing our succession plans and appointment processes for our Board and senior executive positions. However, other selection criteria, in particular business acumen and industry experience, are also fundamentally important. The Board will determine and monitor our succession plans and appointment processes with the aim of achieving our diversity objectives, in particular regarding a balance in the number of women in senior executive positions and on the Board.

2.4 Ability not disability

When we employ and promote people, we consider ability and not disability. We aim to create an inclusive environment that supports people and removes artificial barriers from the workplace.

3. How we Promote Diversity

3.1 Steps we are taking and measurable objectives

Orcoda is committed to an inclusive workplace that embraces and promotes diversity as part of our corporate culture.

Orcoda retains the aim of increasing the percentage of women in senior management positions and the number of women on the Board and promoting the principle that the employment of women should be dealt with on the basis of merit.

Our policies and procedures will ensure that promotion of diversity within the workplace and our management teams will be made aware of the policies that exist within the organisation to promote diversity within the workplace.

Our induction, training and other programs will be designed to promote our culture of diversity and female participation in the workplace and within leadership positions.

3.2 The Board's role

The Board will:

- (a) promote diversity as an important strategic and cultural factor to achieve business objectives across the organisation;

- (b) consider the establishment of measurable objectives in order to achieve the appropriate level of diversity, including gender diversity across, and at various levels of, our organisation;
- (c) annually assess these objectives and the progress in achieving them (where the measurable objectives have been established); and
- (d) review and monitor the effectiveness of this diversity policy, including in relation to Board diversity.

4. Review and Publication of the Policy

The Board will review this policy from time to time. This policy may be amended by resolution of the Board.

This policy will be made available to all directors and employees and will be available on Orcoda' website.
